This is probably the best answer I've ever heard to the question, "Why did God create evil?" READ THIS...

Why did God create evil? The answer struck me to the core of my soul! A professor at the university asked his students the following question: - Everything that exists was created by God?

One student bravely answered: - Yes, created by God. -

Did God create everything? - A professor asked.

"Yes, sir," replied the student.

The professor asked: - If God created everything, then God created evil, since it exists. And according to the principle that our deeds define ourselves, then God is evil.

The student became silent after hearing such an answer.

The professor was very pleased with himself. He boasted to students for proving once again that faith in God is a myth.

Another student raised his hand and said: - Can I ask you a question, professor?

"Of course," replied the professor.

A student got up and asked: - Professor, is cold a thing? -

What kind of question? Of course it exists. Have you ever been cold? Students laughed at the young man's question.

The young man answered: - Actually, sir, cold doesn't exist. According to the laws of physics, what we consider cold is actually the absence of heat. A person or object can be studied on whether it has or transmits energy. Absolute zero (-460 degrees Fahrenheit) is a complete absence of heat. All matter becomes inert and unable to react at this temperature. Cold does not exist. We created this word to describe what we feel in the absence of heat.

A student continued: - Professor, does darkness exist? — Of course it exists. -

You're wrong again, sir. Darkness also does not exist. Darkness is actually the absence of light. We can study the light but not the darkness. We can use Newton's prism to spread white light across multiple colors and explore the different wavelengths of each color.

You can't measure darkness. A simple ray of light can break into the world of darkness and illuminate it. How can you tell how dark a certain space is? You measure how much light is presented. Isn't it so? Darkness is a term man uses to describe what happens in the absence of light.

In the end, the young man asked the professor: - Sir, does evil exist?

This time it was uncertain, the professor answered: - Of course, as I said before. We see him every day. Cruelty, numerous crimes and violence throughout the world. These examples are nothing but a manifestation of evil.

To this, the student answered: - Evil does not exist, sir, or at least it does not exist for itself. Evil is simply the absence of God. It is like darkness and cold—a man-made word to describe the absence of God. God did not create evil. Evil is not faith or love, which exist as light and warmth. Evil is the result of the absence of Divine love in the human heart. It's the kind of cold that comes when there is no heat, or the kind of darkness that comes when there's no light. The student's name was Albert Einstein.

Queridos amigos,

¿Has escuchado el coro: “¿Vendrás y me seguirás si digo tu nombre?” Es de la canción "The Summons", que se canta durante la Santa Misa. La canción es en realidad una serie de preguntas: "¿Irás a donde no sabes... te dejarás atrás... te darás la vuelta y me seguirás...y nunca volver a ser el mismo". Es un gran canto para discernir la vocación al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa.

Por supuesto, el Señor nos ha llamado a cada uno de nosotros por nuestro nombre. En el ritual bautismal se plantea la pregunta: “¿Qué nombre le pone a su hijo?” Dirigiéndose al niño por su nombre, éste es reclamado para Cristo mediante la señal de la Cruz.

Cada uno de nosotros ha sido llamado por Cristo y reclamado para Cristo. Y algunos están llamados a un seguimiento profundo de Cristo a través del sacerdocio o de la vida religiosa. Yo, como el obispo, llamo a los jóvenes a discernir su vocación al sacerdocio, asistiendo al próximo Encuentro “Con el llamado de Dios,” en el Seminario Conception, en Conception, MO, del 19 al 21 de abril, o asistiendo al Encuentro “Ven y Ver” en Kenrick – Glennon Seminary, St. Louis, MO, del 22 al 24 de marzo. Visite nuestro sitio web de Vocaciones en www.dioscg.org/vocations o llame a Kim a la Oficina de Vocaciones al 417-233-4022.

La canción, “The Summons,” termina con el siguiente pensamiento: “Señor, tu llamada tiene un eco verdadero cuando pronuncias mi nombre. Déjame volverme y seguirte y nunca seré el mismo”. No tengas miedo de abrir tu corazón a Cristo, escuchar su llamado... y seguirlo.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Mons. Edward M. Rice

Obispo de Springfield-Cape Girardeau

Prot. No. 58/24

Dear Friends,

Have you heard the refrain, “Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?” It is from the song “The Summons,” which is often sung during Holy Mass. The song is actually a series of questions, “Will you go where you don’t know...will you leave yourself behind...will you turn and follow me and never be the same.” It is a great song for discerning a vocation to the priesthood and religious life.

Of course, the Lord has called each of us by name. In the baptismal ritual, the question is asked, “What name do you give your child?” Addressing the child by name, he or she is then claimed for Christ by the sign of the Cross.

Each of us has been called by Christ and claimed for Christ. And some are called to a profound following of Christ through the priesthood or religious life. To that end, I, as the bishop, call young men to discern their vocation to the priesthood by attending the upcoming Encounter with God’s Call Weekend at Conception Seminary, Conception, MO, April 19 – 21, or the Come and See Weekend at Kenrick – Glennon Seminary, St. Louis, MO, March 22-24. Please visit our Vocation website at www.dioscg.org/vocations or call Kim in the Vocation Office at 417-233-4022.

The Summons ends with the following thought: “Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name. Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.” Do not be afraid to open your heart to Christ, listen to His call...and follow Him.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Edward M. Rice
