READINGS FOR THE WEEK

July 10, 2022 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as “the image of the invisible God,” the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to continue his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

2022-2023 Codes of Conduct are available

As we do every fiscal year, the 2022-2023 Code of Conduct has been made available (in English, Spanish and Vietnamese) through the diocesan webpage under Ministries/Offices, Child and Youth Protection <https://dioscg.org/child-youth-protection/>.

All diocesan personnel, which includes clergy, diocesan, parish and school employees and volunteers who regularly engage in activities involving minors or vulnerable adults are to receive the full five-page document, required to read, sign, and submit the signature page (page five) of the current Code of Conduct to the local Safe Environment Coordinator which is then to be immediately forwarded to the Office of Child and Youth Protection. In addition, diocesan personnel, if they have not already done so, are also required to have had a background screening and have completed the Safe Environment (VIRTUS) training. This year, the Mandated and Ethical Reporter Training has been added as part of the required training for new employees and volunteers and is available upon request for all others.

The Code of Conduct is required every year as part of the ongoing training as suggested under the Charter and required in our diocesan Safe Environment Policy and Procedures. There are often changes and revisions that are made to the Code of Conduct in order to remain current with more recent recommendations of the USCCB and the Vatican, or as a result of recently reported concerns.

Please, as always, read the entire Code of Conduct and especially note the changes in what is described as appropriate or inappropriate contact, and the I will and the I will not sections. Our effort in this mission and ministry is to create a safe environment for all and as is noted in the Code of Conduct:

The Diocese of Springfield – Cape Girardeau has established a policy to promote a positive, nurturing, and safe environment for all ministries to protect minors and adults, as well as diocesan personnel, from misconduct or misunderstandings. This and related policies and guidelines are to be carefully followed by all diocesan personnel.

Thank you for all you do to support this mission and ministry and to protect children and the most vulnerable. We literally could not do this without you! Please contact the Office of Child and Youth Protection if you have any questions or comments about this 2022-2023 Code of Conduct.

I also want to take this opportunity to share that Rosie Francka, a long-time advocate for the protection of children and my assistant, guide, and friend these past five years, is retiring in October. Rosie has been wonderful in working directly with most of you and answering many of your questions. I am so grateful for her and the work she has done, and can only hope and pray we will find someone who can do what Rosie has done for the children and the vulnerable adults in our diocese.

With Sincere Respect and Gratitude,
William Holtmeyer, Jr, MS, NCC, LPC, CEAP
Director, Office of Child and Youth Protection

From Sister Ophelia

Dear Parents, Catechist and Guardians:

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.”

In the Gospel of today, Jesus is asked, “What must I do to inherit eternal life?” Again, we are reminded, “Who is your neighbor? We are called in daily life to seek and listen to those most in need around us. Let us slow down and listen to each other and ask ourselves, what is God calling me to do? How can we better serve others?”

I want to especially thank the whole Hispanic Community Team of Emaus for their prayers, service and willingness to say yes to Jesus. I saw God’s handwork through the participation of both men and women of Emaus. May Our Lord Bless each one abundantly.

PSR REGISTRATIONS will continue throughout the month of July after all the Sunday’s

Masses.

TOTUS TUUS at Holy Trinity in Aurora, July 17 – 22. For information, or to register your children, please contact Leigh Ann Calhoun at (417) 229-2676 or 79caleigh@gmail.com

TOUR of the RELICS of ST. BERNADETTE

Por favor de llamar al Sr. Ed Velten, #417-235-9638 para obtener más información.

Estimados padres, catequistas y tutores:

"Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con todo tu ser, con todas tus fuerzas y con toda tu mente, y a tu prójimo como a ti mismo".

En el Evangelio de hoy, se le pregunta a Jesús: "¿Qué debo hacer para alcanzar la vida eterna?" Nuevamente, se nos recuerda, "¿Quién es tu prójimo? Estamos llamados en la vida diaria a buscar y escuchar a los más necesitados que nos rodean. Reduzcamos la velocidad en la vida diaria, escuchémonos unos a otros y preguntémonos, ¿qué me está llamando Dios a hacer? ¿Cómo podemos servir mejor a los demás?"

Quiero agradecer especialmente a todo el Equipo de la Comunidad Hispana de Emaús por sus oraciones, servicio y disposición para decirle sí a Jesús. Sentí el amor y la obra de Dios a través de la participación de hombres y mujeres de Emaús. Que Nuestro Señor Bendiga abundantemente a cada uno.

Las INSCRIPCIONES para PSR continuarán durante todo el mes de julio después de todas las Misas del domingo.

TOTUS TUUS en La Iglesia Católica Santa Trinidad (Holy Trinity) en Aurora, del 17 al 22 de julio. Para obtener información o para inscribir a sus hijos, comuníquese con Leigh Ann Calhoun al (417) 229-2676 o 79caleigh@gmail.com

¡Un bendecido verano para todos!

RELACIONES CORRECTAS

Nuestro Dios es acerca de relaciones. En la primera lectura, Moisés les recuerda a los israelitas que las leyes, que ya están en sus corazones, los mantiene en una relación correcta con el Dios que los ama tanto que siempre consiguen el perdón. Siglos después, llega Jesús, a quien Pablo describe a los colosenses como “la imagen del Dios invisible”, la encarnación misma de este Dios de amor. En su parábola acerca del buen samaritano, Jesús explica cómo la ley de amor anula la letra de la ley. En lugar de responder a la pregunta “¿quién es mi prójimo?” Jesús demuestra que no se trata de quien es digno de ser amado, sino de amar como Dios ama, de ser prójimo, de ser el buen samaritano. Jesús quiere que continuemos su obra como imágenes de este Dios de amor, amando a todas las personas, incluso a las que parecen ser nuestros enemigos.

Primera Lectura — Escuchen la voz del Señor. Es algo muy cerca de ti, y está en tu corazón; sólo necesitas observarla (Deuteronomio 30:10-14).

Salmo — Humildes, busquen al Señor, y revivirán sus corazones (Salmo 69 [68]) o Salmo 19 (18).

Segunda Lectura — Todas las cosas fueron creadas mediante y para Cristo Jesús (Colosenses 1:15-20).

Evangelio — Ser un buen vecino, mostrar amor tratando a otros con misericordia (Lucas 10:25-37).
