READINGS FOR THE WEEK

July 3, 2022 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoice and be glad for I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of nations like an overflowing torrent (Isaiah 66:10-14c).

Psalm — Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading — May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus sends his disciples out in pairs to bring his peace and proclaim the kingdom of God (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 [1-9]).

School News

Dear St. Lawrence Family,

I pray you are having a great summer! We are just ending our summer school program and the kids have had a great time! We have a few openings for students in grades K-6 if you are interested or know someone who is. Preschool is currently full, but we do have a waiting list. St. Lawrence School will be setting up a Giving Tree of needs for the coming school year. We are always so grateful for the help and support you give us! Thank you in advance if you can help again this year! I am in the office Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday morning from 9-1 and can be reached by email at twelch@stlawrencecatholicschool.com

God bless you!
Tracey

LIFEHOUSE CRISIS MATERNITY HOME - THANK YOU

Thank you to all those who contributed to the LifeHouse Crisis Maternity Home as a project for Lent. LifeHouse is currently celebrating the births of 109 babies to formerly homeless clients since December 2013. Services continue through the pandemic. All of the women have traumatic backgrounds, usually including substance abuse, and at times human trafficking. In addition to the women who have been enrolled in the program, hundreds of additional women have been provided with resources for shelter and other needs. Through the program, these women who were at severe risk are able to achieve self-sufficiency and build good lives for themselves and their babies. For more information, see the website at <http://www.csomo.org>, or look up LifeHouse Crisis Maternity Home.

2022-2023 Codes of Conduct are available

As we do every fiscal year, the 2022-2023 Code of Conduct has been made available (in English, Spanish and Vietnamese) through the diocesan webpage under Ministries/Offices, Child and Youth Protection <https://dioscg.org/child-youth-protection/>.

All diocesan personnel, which includes clergy, diocesan, parish and school employees and volunteers who regularly engage in activities involving minors or vulnerable adults are to receive the full five-page document, required to read, sign, and submit the signature page (page five) of the current Code of Conduct to the local Safe Environment Coordinator which is then to be immediately forwarded to the Office of Child and Youth Protection. In addition, diocesan personnel, if they have not already done so, are also required to have had a background screening and have completed the Safe Environment (VIRTUS) training. This year, the Mandated and Ethical Reporter Training has been added as part of the required training for new employees and volunteers and is available upon request for all others.

The Code of Conduct is required every year as part of the ongoing training as suggested under the Charter and required in our diocesan Safe Environment Policy and Procedures. There are often changes and revisions that are made to the Code of Conduct in order to remain current with more recent recommendations of the USCCB and the Vatican, or as a result of recently reported concerns.

Please, as always, read the entire Code of Conduct and especially note the changes in what is described as appropriate or inappropriate contact, and the I will and the I will not sections. Our effort in this mission and ministry is to create a safe environment for all and as is noted in the Code of Conduct:

The Diocese of Springfield – Cape Girardeau has established a policy to promote a positive, nurturing, and safe environment for all ministries to protect minors and adults, as well as diocesan personnel, from misconduct or misunderstandings. This and related policies and guidelines are to be carefully followed by all diocesan personnel.

Thank you for all you do to support this mission and ministry and to protect children and the most vulnerable. We literally could not do this without you! Please contact the Office of Child and Youth Protection if you have any questions or comments about this 2022-2023 Code of Conduct.

I also want to take this opportunity to share that Rosie Francka, a long-time advocate for the protection of children and my assistant, guide, and friend these past five years, is retiring in October. Rosie has been wonderful in working directly with most of you and answering many of your questions. I am so grateful for her and the work she has done, and can only hope and pray we will find someone who can do what Rosie has done for the children and the vulnerable adults in our diocese.

With Sincere Respect and Gratitude,
William Holtmeyer, Jr, MS, NCC, LPC, CEAP
Director, Office of Child and Youth Protection

PSR Announcements for July:

Dear Parents, Catechist and Guardians:

I would like to thank you for your prayers during my time spent in San Antonio, Texas. Thank you and I am glad to be back. I was able to visit with our Sisters and my family throughout the weeks. I had the opportunity to attend mass one day at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Little Flower. We were blessed with several priests present at the noon mass. Let us continue to pray for each other and pray for religious vocations.

Anuncios de PSR para julio:

Estimados padres, catequistas y tutores:
 Quisiera agradecerles por sus oraciones durante el tiempo que pasé en San Antonio, Texas.
 Gracias y estoy feliz de regresar. Pude visitar a nuestras Hermanas y mi familia a lo largo de las semanas. Tuve la oportunidad de asistir a misa un día en la Basílica del Santuario Nacional de Santa Teresa. Fuimos bendecidos con varios sacerdotes presentes en la misa del mediodía.
 Sigamos orando unos por otros y orando por las vocaciones religiosas.

Una oportunidad para su familia:

DECIMOCUARTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

3 DE JULIO DE 2022

LECTURAS DE HOY— 3 de julio de 2022 Decimocuarta del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

LA BUENA NUEVA ESTÁ EN CAMINO

Esta semana, en pleno verano, las Escrituras nos dan la bienvenida con alegría, paz, misericordia y más paz. Suena un poco como a Adviento ¿cierto? Con frecuencia asociamos al profeta Isaías con ese tiempo de preparación, y nuestra primera lectura suena con palabras como regocijar, consolar y alegrarse. Los israelitas tenían motivos para alegrarse, pues habían regresado, vuelto a casa, a una Jerusalén reconstruida tras su exilio en Babilonia.

En el Evangelio, los setenta y dos discípulos que habían sido enviados tienen su propio “regreso a casa”, volviendo a Jesús después de haber difundido la Buena Nueva del Reino y en haber preparado a la gente para el “advenimiento” de Jesús a sus ciudades y pueblos en su largo camino a Jerusalén. Como los exiliados que comenta Isaías, los discípulos regresan regocijados.

La Buena Nueva, el Reino de Dios, está llegando, incluso en el verano. Como nos recuerda el salmo de hoy: “¡Grite con alegría a Dios toda la tierra!”

Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Primera Lectura — Regocíjense y alégrense porque extenderé la prosperidad sobre Jerusalén como un río (Isaías 66:10-14c).

Salmo — Aclamamen al Señor, tierra entera (Salmo 66 [65]).

Segunda Lectura — Que nunca me glorie excepto en la cruz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo (Gálatas 6:14-18).

Evangelio — Jesús envía sus discípulos de dos en dos a llevar su paz a la gente (Lucas 10:1-12, 17-20) [1-9].
