Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

Mark 12:41-42

NOVEMBER PRAYER

Gracious and loving God,
 As the autumn season continues its transformation;
 and the days become shorter,
 the earth cooler;
 as we anticipate joining family and friends in joyful celebration on Thanksgiving Day, we pause to give You thanks and praise for the abundant blessings
 You have bestowed upon us:
 For life and health, safety and comfort, food and nourishment, we are sincerely grateful.
 Through your Spirit, open our hearts
 so that we may be even better stewards of these rich and unmerited gifts.
 Show us how to be a blessing for the poor, sick, lonely and all who suffer.
 And help us nurture the gift of faith,
 revealed to us by your Son,
 Jesus Christ, our greatest gift, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.
 Amen.

PARISH VOCATIONS MINISTRY

At the recent Clergy Institute, which was held last week, the first three conferences were on promoting Vocations. The “take-away” was the formation of a Parish Vocation Committee in each of our parishes/deaneries. What are the requirements for membership on this committee? Three requirements are needed: The person must love Jesus; love Mary; and love The Church. I believe that every parish has several parishioners who fulfill those three requirements. Anticipating the upcoming parish training sessions with Rhonda Gruenewald on Sat., Dec. 4, at Holy Trinity Parish in Springfield and Sun., Dec. 5 at the St. John Henry Newman Center, Cape Girardeau, now is the time for pastors to seek out those parishioners and organizations like the PCCW and Knights of Columbus, who have an interest in promoting vocations. Let us ask Our Lady, Queen of the Clergy, to bless our efforts.

SAVE THE DATE—PARISHIONER TRAINING SESSIONS

Please save the date for the follow-up parishioner training sessions with Rhonda Gruenewald, founder of Vocation Ministry. Pastors, please consider invitations to 4-8 people within the parish with a heart for vocations and a willingness to boldly put forward the prayerful work of fostering vocations in their communities. Training sessions will be held, Sat., Dec. 4, 9 a.m.-3 p.m., with lunch provided, at Holy Trinity Parish, Springfield; and Sun., Dec. 5, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., in the St. John Henry Newman Center in Cape Girardeau, Mass and lunch will be provided. For more information, please contact Kim Kearbey, kkearbey@dioscg.org.

Theology of the Body

What is it all about?

It is more than you think!

Join us as we discover the fundamental truth of our innate dignity firmly rooted in God's image, as male and female, called to love one another as God loves.

Springfield Catholic Schools and the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau is unrolling Theology of the Body in the school and PSR curriculum. All parents, catechists, and adult members of the schools and parishes are invited to an information session to learn more.

Tuesday, November 9, 2021
7:00 p.m.
Springfield Catholic High School

Our priests, school staff, and parents will share the answers to the following questions:

- † What is Theology of the Body (TOB)?
- † Why was TOB chosen as one of the two new initiatives to be implemented in the 21-22 school year?
- † What have our diocese and schools done in the past and what is new for this year?
- † How is this relevant to our lives right now?
- † How can I learn more?

Please RSVP to michelleadt@scspsk12.org.
RSVP is not required, but appreciated!
