From the St. Lawrence School Principal

Dear Parishioners,

A big thank you to all the wonderful envelope donors to our school. Your support was overwhelming and a true blessing to our school. Thank you to Rigoberto & Carmen Vargas, Mr. & Mrs. Francisco Mendez, Mrs. Patricia Monto, Mr. & Mrs. Rodney Wroblewski, Mr. Bu Reh, Mr. & Mrs. John Schmidt, Pauline Kelly, Mr. Joseph McCaffrey, Mrs. Marilyn Roetto, and Patricia Randall. You help make our school a better place.

We are asking the Parish to help support our school by purchasing a t-shirt or sweatshirt with our school theme this year on the back and St. Lawrence School on the front. By purchasing a shirt and wearing it in public, you will not only be helping support the year of Eucharistic Revival. Our theme is "Be the you in the Eucharist"

Please find an order sheet in the bulletin. You can turn it in with your order at either the parish office or the school office. Thank you so much.

PCCW

The St. Lawrence PCCW meeting was last held on October 2, 2023. Minutes and Treasurer's reports were read and approved. Circle 3 is in charge of the next funeral dinner. Our group has helped in many areas recently. We have purchased several new purificators that were needed, purchased 6 new tables to help in the parish hall, purchased and updated Word software for the parish office and donated for a computer charging cart for the 1st grade classroom.

The Fall Feast was discussed as it will be on Sunday, November 5th, from 11-1pm. Anyone wishing to help on Saturday morning beginning at 10:00 to help with peeling potatoes and various other vegetables would be greatly appreciated. Tables will also be set up and decorated as well. Several ladies volunteered to bake turkeys or hams and the circle leaders will be making calls later this month for help with salads, rolls, desserts or workers. Please help them out if you are able to do so.

There will be a RCCW meeting on Thursday, December 1th in Billings for anyone interested in attending.

The 2nd annual Women's conference will be held on Saturday, October 14th at Holy Trinity in Springfield. If interested, Agnes Bruner has more information.
