RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Dear Parents and Catechists:

May the Peace of Christ be with you!

October is the month for reflection on the beauty of the creation of nature, respect for life and prayer life.

Every month ICSC, (International Catholic Steward Council) sends out information or material on finding ways to rebuild a sense of community through liturgy, scripture, music and other gathering weekly. I find it interesting to read and know the church is struggling AND WHAT ARE WAYS TO better serve families as they return to church.

In listening to daily scripture this week, "The people of Nineveh believed God. (Jonah 3:5) and remembering that God's word is living in each one's heart and mind. It is challenging in day and age for many of us in finding time and ways to be light of this world.

We need your support for the following PSR events and activities this month.

Parent's we need your help. We would like to invite your child/ren to dress up as a saint for "All Saints Day" to be celebrated on Sunday, October 31st.

We are very grateful for all our volunteers and Catechists in assisting us in this year's PSR Program. Parent's are invited to volunteer and join us on Sunday mornings or Wednesday evenings. Please contact the Office or Sister Ophelia.

Be Safe, Blessings and in our prayers,

Sister Ophelia.

Our Insurance Company has informed us that we must repair our side walks. Please consider using your "Building Fund" envelope to contribute.

School News

Dear St. Lawrence Family,
We have had the chance to talk with many of our parents at Parent/Teacher conferences this week. It's always nice to share with parents how well their students are progressing!

This week is Red Ribbon Week, a week that we celebrate making healthy and safe life choices. We also are beginning to learn more about All Saints and All Souls Day. We will be hosting a Trunk or Treat on Friday, Oct. 29 from 5-6 in the church parking lot. Everyone is invited and if you would like to offer your trunk, you are always welcome to!

Have a blessed and beautiful week!

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of October 23/24, 2021

After healing the blind man in today's Gospel Jesus told him to go, to be on his way. But the man chose to follow Jesus. Being a disciple of Jesus is a choice.

The stewardship way of life likewise involves a choice, in fact many choices. We choose to be grateful, we choose to live generously, and we choose to trust that God will always provide for our needs.

These are three choices central to the stewardship way of life.

What choices will we make this week that give witness to our decision to follow Jesus Christ?

Sick and Homebound

Please contact the parish office, if you know of any one that is homebound, in a nursing home or in a caring facility. Fr. Rahab would like to visit them on a regular basis. Thank you for your help.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

RECOGNIZING JESUS

The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens.

Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same?

Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Fin de semana del 23/24 de octubre de 2021

Después de sanar al hombre ciego en el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús le dijo que se fuera, que siguiera su camino. Pero el hombre eligió seguir a Jesús. Ser discípulos de Jesús es una elección. La corresponsabilidad como una forma de vida implica una elección, de hecho, muchas elecciones. Elegimos ser agradecidos, elegimos vivir generosamente y elegimos confiar en que Dios siempre proveerá para nuestras necesidades. Estas son tres opciones centrales para la forma de vida de la corresponsabilidad. ¿Qué decisiones tomaremos esta semana que den testimonio de nuestra decisión de seguir a Jesucristo?
