READINGS FOR THE WEEK

October 30, 2022 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

A COMPASSIONATE GOD

Today's reading from the book of Wisdom presents an image of a patient God who "rebuke[s] offenders little by little" (Wisdom 12:2), an image endorsed by the psalmist, singing of how the LORD is "slow to anger and of great kindness, and compassionate toward all his works" (Psalm 145:8, 9). The crowd with Jesus, however, grumbles when they see Jesus's kindness and compassion extended to Zacchaeus, who was not just a tax collector, but the "chief tax collector"—a title that surely emphasizes his standing as a sinner to be scorned. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the Thessalonians to be "worthy" of God's calling, so that "the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you" (2 Thessalonians 1:12); such people, unlike the crowd in the Gospel, would rejoice at Zacchaeus's determination to change his life after encountering Jesus.

Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

First Reading — LORD, you love all things that exist (Wisdom 11:22 — 12:2).

Psalm — I will praise your name forever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — May the name of Christ be glorified in you and you in him (2 Thessalonians 1:11 — 2:2).

Gospel — Zacchaeus, a tax collector, considered to be a sinner, is converted to the Lord (Luke 19:1-10).

School News

Dear St. Lawrence Family,

We just finished our Parent/Teacher conferences and they were well attended. We are very proud of the effort our children put into their work and we are so blessed to have supportive families!

We will be having our Halloween parties on Monday with a parade beginning around 1:45pm. We will circle the school and anyone is invited to watch! We will be out of school on Nov. 1 for All Saints Day. During November we will have a prayer box containing names of those departed family members we wish to pray for. If you would like for us to pray for one of your loved ones, please let us know.

I pray for blessings for a wonderful weekend! God Bless you!
Tracey

A Prayer for the Month of the Holy Souls

In these days when we look back upon generations of the mercy of God, brilliantly lit in those who came before us, I like to think, too, of the mercy that will stretch beyond us. We have laid so many to rest this year that our grief is ever present with us, but so, likewise, are our loved ones— The paths they walked, the prayers they prayed for us. May we realize, too, that someday we also will live on earth only in memory, carried in the hearts of those who loved us. In remembering our death, may we move through each day with tenderness, with gentleness, with love strong enough to stretch that thin veil between heaven and earth into transparency. May we light the candles that will brighten the lives of those who will come after us, and may we always recognize this truth: That the goodness of God is matched only by its might, ever transcending both life and death

Amen.

Activate your God-given spiritual gifts

Join us for 6 weekly sessions. Beginning 10/6, we will meet every Thursday at 6:30pm to dive deeper into how to use the spiritual gifts God has given us. Sessions will consist of short videos and discussion time and will last approximately 1.5 hours each week. The focus is for women this time. We're hoping to do something for men and families in the near future.

News and Upcoming Events

Parish School of Religion (PSR)

Dear Parents, Guardians and Catechists

May our Lord bring peace, joy and hope among us!

After a day of gathering of religious Sisters of our Diocese with our Bishop, it brings me to reflect on family. As a family, we are called to spend time with each other and make more time for prayer together to see how we are. We are called for a true conversion of our hearts with one another in order to serve each other. The Lord calls us each to be at peace, be joyful to give hope.

I would like to direct you to the following dates:

- All Saints Day & All Souls Day, 11/1 & 11/02, we would like for you bring a picture of a saint and photo of a deceased member of your family to be place in our prayer table.
- In the past, we have been providing snacks for the children after class. We are asking for your child/ren to bring their favorite snack and drink for the month of November to share with their friends after class.
- We will have classes on Sunday, November 6 at 11:00am.

Let us be thankful and grateful for all the many blessings as we enter another month. We are called for sharing our gifts and talents with others.

Have a blessed Fall Season!

Sister Ophelia

Noticias de Educación Religiosa

Queridas padres, custodios y catequistas

¡Que nuestro Señor nos de la su paz, alegría y esperanza!

Después de un día de reunión con las religiosas de nuestra diócesis y con nuestro Obispo Rice, me lleva a reflexionar sobre la importancia de la familia.

Como familia, estamos llamados a pasar tiempo para conocernos más y dedicar más tiempo a la oración juntos y ver cómo estamos. Estamos llamados a una verdadera conversión de nuestros corazones unos con otros para servirnos unos a otros. El Señor nos llama a cada uno a estar en paz, alegre y tener esperanza.

Me gustaría indicarle las siguientes fechas:

- El próximo domingo, nos gustaría que traigan un fotografía de un santo y de un miembro fallecido de su familia para colocarlos en nuestra mesa de oración para el Día de Todos los Santos y los Difuntos.
- En el pasado, hemos estado proporcionando meriendas para los niños después de la clase. Les estamos pidiendo a sus hijos que traigan sus snacks y bebida favorita para compartir con sus amigos para el mes de noviembre. Estamos llamados a compartir nuestros dones con los demás. Por los siguientes próximos meses queremos el apoyo de los padres en ayudarnos con los snacks.
- Tendremos clases el domingo 6 de noviembre a las 11:00 am.

Bendiciones!

Hermana Ophelia

Trigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

LECTURAS DE HOY — 30 de octubre de 2022 Trigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

UN DIOS COMPASIVO

La lectura de hoy del libro de la Sabiduría presenta la imagen de un Dios paciente que “reprende a los delincuentes poco a poco” (Sabiduría 12:2), una imagen apoyada por el salmista, cantando cómo el Señor es “lento para enojarse y generoso para perdonar, a todas sus obras se extiende su ternura” (Salmo 145: 8, 9). Sin embargo, la multitud que acompaña se queja cuando ven la bondad y compasión de Jesús dirigida a Zaqueo, quien no sólo era un recaudador de impuestos, sino el “jefe de los recaudadores”, un trabajo que seguramente enfatiza su condición de pecador que hay que despreciar. En la segunda lectura, san Pablo exhorta a los tesalonicenses a ser “dignos” de la llamada de Dios, para que “el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesús sea glorificado en ustedes” (2 Tesalonicenses 1:12); esas personas, a diferencia de la multitud del Evangelio, se alegrarían de que Zaqueo tomó la decisión de cambiar su vida después del encuentro con Jesús.

Primera Lectura — Señor, tú amas todo cuanto existe (Sabiduría 11:22 — 12:2).

Salmo — Bendeciré tu nombre por siempre, Dios mío, mi rey (Salmo 145 [144]).

Segunda Lectura — Oramos siempre por ustedes para que el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo se glorifique en ustedes y ustedes en él (2 Tesalonicenses 1:11 — 2:2).

Evangelio — Zaqueo, cobrador de impuestos, considerado socialmente como pecador, se convierte al Señor (Lucas 19:1-10).

Una oración para el mes de las almas santas

En estos días cuando miramos hacia atrás sobre las generaciones de la Misericordia de Dios, brillantemente iluminado en aquellos que vinieron antes que nosotros, también me gusta pensar de la Misericordia que se extenderá más allá de nosotros. Hemos sepultado a tantos este año que nuestro dolor está siempre presente con nosotros, pero también lo están nuestros seres queridos: los caminos que recorrieron las oraciones que rezaron por nosotros. Que nos demos cuenta, también, de que algún día también nosotros viviremos en la tierra solo en la memoria, llevada en el corazón de quienes no amaron. Al recordar nuestra muerte que avancemos cada día con ternura, con delicadeza, con un amor lo suficientemente fuerte como para extender ese velo delgado entre el cielo y la tierra hasta hacerlo transparente. Que encendamos las velas que iluminarán la vida de los que vendrán después de nosotros. Y que siempre reconozca esta verdad: que la bondad de Dios es un encuentro únicamente por su poder, que siempre trasciende tanto la vida como la muerte.
