SCHOOL NEWS

This week we were happy to learn fire safety from our Monett fire department! We also supported the causes of stickler syndrome and breast cancer by wearing the colors to represent each cause. Even more important than the diagnoses are the people in our own school that we could lift up with our actions and love.

We prayed an "all around the school" rosary on Wednesday in honor of the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. We went to a different place for each decade to pray for our faculty, students and staff. It is wonderful to be united in prayer and in our love for Our Lady!

NOTICIAS ESCOLARES

¡Esta semana no alegro aprender sobre seguridad contra incendios gracias al Departamento de Bomberos de Monett! También apoyamos las causas del síndrome de Stickler y la lucha contra el cáncer de mama visitando los colores que representan a cada una de ellas. Aun más importantes que los diagnósticos son las personas de nuestra propia escuela a quienes podemos animar con nuestras acciones y nuestro amor.

El miércoles rezamos un rosario recorriendo toda la escuela en honor a la fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Rosario. Nos dirigimos a un lugar distinto para cada misterio a fin de rezar por nuestro profesorado, los alumnos y el personal. ¡El maravilloso estar unidos en la oración y en nuestro amor por Nuestra Señora!

Herald Street Worship begins when?
by Deacon Jim

As a former Protestant, I was always intrigued when I saw Catholics make the Sign of the Cross. Growing up, I hardly knew any Catholics, so I did not understand what the gesture meant. Yet something about it spoke to me. When I was young, I would sometimes secretly make the Sign of the Cross myself. I feared my friends might see me and ridicule me, but something about that simple gesture felt sacred. Long before I understood its theology, my heart somehow recognized that the Cross meant something profound.

What I could not explain then, I understand more deeply now. That simple gesture reminds us of who we are and to whom we belong. As we enter the church, dip our fingers into holy water, and make the Sign of the Cross, we are being called back to our Baptism, the gateway to our life in Christ and the beginning of our sacramental journey.

Through Baptism, we are forgiven, become children of God, are incorporated into the Body of Christ, and receive new life in the Holy Spirit. From Baptism, our sacramental life unfolds: Baptism begins this new life, Confirmation strengthens it, and the Eucharist nourishes us with Christ himself.

Pope Francis called Baptism a kind of "second birthday," because through it we are reborn into life in Christ. He also taught that the Sign of the Cross reminds us of God's grace, "who loves us and wishes to stay with us."

As we enter the church, let us slow down and make this familiar gesture with intention. When our fingers touch the holy water, we remember that we are baptized. As we trace the Cross over ourselves, we remember that we belong to Christ. And as we say, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," we recall the divine life into which we have been welcomed. This small gesture is a profound profession of faith. Before we take our place in the pew, hear God's Word, or approach the Eucharistic altar, it reminds us of who we are, whose we are, and where our journey with Christ began.

Yours in Christ, Deacon Jim

¿Cuándo comienza el culto a Herald Street?
decimos el Credo Niceo?
Por Deacon Jim

Como ex protestante, siempre me intrigaba ver a católicos hacer la Señal de la Cruz. Al crecer, apenas conocía a ningún católico, así que no entendía lo que significaba ese gesto. Sin embargo, algo en él me hablaba. Cuando era joven, a veces hacía la Señal de la Cruz en secreto yo mismo. Temía que mis amigos me vieran y se burlaran de mí, pero algo en ese simple gesto se sentía sagrado. Mucho antes de entender su teología, mi corazón de alguna manera reconoció que la Cruz significaba algo profundo.

Lo que no podía explicar entonces, ahora lo entiendo más profundamente. Ese simple gesto nos recuerda quiénes somos y a quién pertenecemos. Al entrar a la iglesia, sumergir los dedos en agua bendita y hacer la Señal de la Cruz, estamos siendo llamados de regreso a nuestro Bautismo, la puerta a nuestra vida en Cristo y el inicio de nuestro camino sacramental.

A través del Bautismo, somos perdonados, nos convertimos en hijos de Dios, somos incorporados al Cuerpo de Cristo y recibimos nueva vida en el Espíritu Santo. A partir del Bautismo se despliega nuestra vida sacramental: el Bautismo inicia esta nueva vida, la Confirmación la fortalece y la Eucaristía nos nutre con Cristo mismo.

El Papa Francisco llamó al Bautismo una especie de "segundo cumpleaños", porque a través de él renacemos en la vida en Cristo.

También enseñó que la Señal de la Cruz nos recuerda la gracia de Dios, "que nos ama y desea permanecer con nosotros."

Al entrar a la iglesia, bajemos el paso y hagamos este gesto familiar con intención. Cuando nuestros dedos tocan el agua bendita, recordamos que estamos bautizados. Al trazar la Cruz sobre nosotros mismos, recordamos que pertenecemos a Cristo. Y al decir, "En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo," recordamos la vida divina en la que hemos sido recibidos. Este pequeño gesto es una profunda profesión de fe. Antes de tomar nuestro lugar en el banco, escuchar la Palabra de Dios o acercarnos al altar eucarístico, nos recuerda quiénes somos, quiénes somos y dónde comenzó nuestro camino con Cristo.

Tuyo en Cristo, Diácono Jim

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

Imagine that you live in a great kingdom with a king and queen and many other great people. You hear that the king's son is going to get married and there will be a great wedding feast. All the lords and ladies and rich land owners are invited. On the day of the wedding the servants go out to call the guests to the wedding, but all those important people refuse to go! They say they are too busy with other things, and can't be bothered to go!

Now imagine that you are one of the children in a poor family that lives down a back street. Suddenly you hear people calling out that the king has invited your family to the feast! What excitement! Everybody puts on their best clothes and goes to the castle. In a little while the king comes in and you see him pointing to a man who isn't dressed neatly, and hasn't washed his face or brushed his hair. He sends the man out of the hall.

INVITES
HIS SON'S WEDDING!

This is the story that Jesus told about the kingdom of Heaven.

Many important people have been invited, but they have decided that they were too busy with other things. But the King has invited us too! We should rejoice and "dress" our souls by being the best we can be! Don't be a half-hearted Christian!

Answer to front page: Everyone's invited! Answers to True or False: 1. false 2. true 3. true 4. false 5. true 6. true 7. true

The king sent his servants to call all the people in the street to his son's wedding. Follow the road on the map from the castle's courtyard all the way to the farmland. The people in the houses next to the road you pass are invited to the wedding.

You can colour in the houses if you like.
Who was invited to the feast?

Saint Seraphin

October 12

SAINT SERAPHIN NEVER DID ANYTHING GREAT OR IMPORTANT, BUT HE DID EVERYTHING WITH GREAT LOVE FOR GOD. HE TRIED TO BE LIKE SAINT FRANCIS IN HIS ZEAL AND LOVE OF THE POOR. LIKE SAINT SERAPHIN, WE CAN IMITATE THE SAINTS AND DO EVERY LITTLE THING OUT OF LOVE OF GOD.

True or False: Who is Invited to the Wedding?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus compares the kingdom of Heaven to a king giving a wedding feast for his son. What happened in the story? See if you know which of these are true statements and which are false:

1. The first time the servants went out to call those who were invited, all the guests came. True or false?
2. When the king sent out the second group of servants, some people didn't come, but went off to their farms and businesses. True or false?
3. Some people mistreated and even killed the servants. True or false?
4. The king decided that nobody else was worthy to come to his son's wedding. True or false?
5. The king decided to send his servants out into the streets to call everyone to come to the wedding. True or false?
6. When the servants called the people in the streets, they all came and filled the banquet hall. True or false?
7. When the king came in to look at his guests and found one that wasn't dressed for the wedding, he had him thrown out of the place. True or false?
